Please Note: Unless otherwise indicated, this list identifies the only entities that are authorized to distribute Grifols' products throughout the United States. It does not include healthcare providers that distribute Grifols' products as part of a closed provider network or intra-company transfer. Authorized distributor reporting requirements vary widely by state. This list may not include all subsidiaries, divisions and affiliated organizations for which reporting may be required under state law. Please consult individual state board of pharmacy listings for information pertaining to specific distribution in that state.
